

T: + 852 2525 7388

F: + 852 2525 7390

E: ferguschan@princeschambers.com

FERGUS CHAN

Professional qualifications

2021 Barrister, Hong Kong

Academic

2020 PCLL, University of Hong Kong

2018 JD, Chinese University of Hong Kong

2016 BA (Economics), University of California Berkeley

Practice profile

Fergus is developing a broad civil and criminal practice. Since coming to the Bar, he has accumulated experience in a wide range of cases, including but not limited to, company, commercial, chancery, probate, land and property, white-collar crime, personal injuries, and employment litigations.

Fergus has particular experience in matrimonial litigations where he advises on all aspects of matrimonial finances and children matters.

Fergus joined Chambers after completing his pupillage with Mr. Joseph Tse SC, Mr. Robert Pang SC, Mr. Osmond Lam, Mr. Enzo Chow, Mr. Felix Li, and Mr. Thomas Wong. Prior to joining the Bar, he also served as a court marshall in the Family Court.

Fergus is fluent in both English and Chinese, and has been regularly instructed to draft legal documents in both languages. He accepts instructions in all areas of work.

Practice areas

- Arbitration
- Company
- Commercial
- Competition
- Criminal
- Defamation
- Employment
- Equity and Trusts
- Family
- Mediation
- Mental Health
- Personal Injuries
- Probate
- Property
- Securities and Regulation
- White-collar crime