THOMAS YEON

---

Admissions

2022 Barrister, Hong Kong

Academic

2020 Postgraduate Certificate in Laws, University of Hong Kong
2019 Master of Laws, London School of Economics and Political Science (Merit)
2018 Bachelor of Laws, University of Durham (First class honours)

Practice profile

Thomas is developing a broad civil and arbitration practice (including urgent injunctive and interlocutory matters) and accepts instructions in all areas of Chambers' work. He is comfortable with being instructed as sole counsel or a member of a larger team. He is capable of preparing legal documents and conduct hearings in both English and Chinese (traditional/simplified). He is a Middle Temple Scholar and a Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators.

Thomas has contributed to practitioners' texts on a variety of practice areas in civil litigation, including matters involving cross-border elements and conflicts of laws.

Prior to commencing practice, Thomas clerked as a Judicial Assistant at the Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal. In this capacity, he assisted in substantive appeals, applications for leave to appeal and other legal research and publications on a variety of private law and public law matters. He also authored academic pieces of various lengths, including over 10 articles published at peer-reviewed legal periodicals.
